1 NOVEMBER 28, 2012, INTERVIEW WITH KRISTINE BIGGS

2 OFFICER: Did she say okay? All right.

3 Q. You're cold?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Hi, how are you?

6 A. I've been better.

7 Q. Yes, I'm sure, I'm sure. I'm Sergeant
8 Thompson. I'm with Davis County Sheriff's Office. Okay?
9 And I'm one of the investigators and this is Detective
10 Warechise (sic), he works with me.

11 DETECTIVE WARECHISE: Hello.

12 Q. And you know, we're --

13 A. I had every intention of trying to kill
14 myself yesterday.

15 Q. You had ever intention of trying to kill
16 yours?

17 A. -- have to ask -- yes.

18 Q. Okay, hon. Tell you what, let's work through 19 this together, okay? I know that you're in a lot of 20 pain, and I know that a lot of stuff has happened to you,
21 okay? So, the key is, you know, you have rights, okay?
22 And you're not under arrest, okay? But, you know,
23 obviously you can't hop out of the bed either. So if 24 there's anything that I ask you that you don't want to 25 answer, just tell me 'I don't want to answer that.' Or,

1     okay. And then did you just start drinking on the road,
2     or what happened? And I know that you're having a tough
3     time, you're having a tough time kid-o, and I understand
4     that.

5             A.     Actually, it's time for my pain meds.

6             Q.     Is it? Do you want me to get the nurse?

7             A.     I don't know if you want me to wait or --

8             Q.     I don't want you to be uncomfortable, but
9     yeah, if we can talk, it really shouldn't take that long.

10            A.     Okay.

11            Q.     So. Okay. Tell me -- so you bought a bottle
12     in Evanston, and you started drinking, and now you're
13     driving down the road.

14            A.     I was talking to my friend Sandy.

15            Q.     You were talk --

16            A.     That's the last thing that I remember was
17     talking to my friend Sandy.

18            Q.     Sandy?

19            A.     And there was a loud bang and lots of pain.

20            Q.     Okay. Okay.

21            A.     And then I'm here.

22            Q.     Yeah. Now, tell me, you're driving into
23     Utah, and do you remember seeing the police officers?

24            A.     No.

25            Q.     Do you remember seeing the lights?

1 A. No.

2 Q. You don't remember seeing the lights behind
3 you?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Okay.

6 A. That's what I remember.

7 Q. The bang?

8 A. Yeah.

9 Q. Okay. Do you -- do you recall getting off
10 the freeway and turning around heading back towards
11 Wyoming, and then getting off the freeway again, and
12 heading back towards California?

13 A. No. You're, I guess, telling me what I did?

14 Q. Well, I'm just asking you if you remember.
15 Do you remember something wrong with your truck?

16 A. I was fighting with the tarp.

17 Q. Fighting with the tarp?

18 A. Yeah, I had my stuff packed in my truck.

19 Q. Okay. Okay. Tell me everything about
20 fighting with the tarp?

21 A. Well, that was when I stopped in Evanston, is
22 the last time I tried to re-strap it down again.

23 Q. Okay. And then what happened?

24 A. Loud bang. Lots of pain.

25 Q. So, your recollection is you remember

1       stopping in Evanston, and you remember fighting with the
2       tarp?

3             A.     Yeah.

4             Q.     What's the next thing you remember?

5             A.     Loud bang.

6             Q.     Loud bang.

7             A.     Lots of pain.

8             Q.     Okay.  If -- I don't want to put ideas in
9       your head, I don't want to put words in your mouth, and I
10      just want to understand.  And what I'm hoping to get is
11      just some understanding, you know.  Do you think that you
12      blacked out?  Have you --

13            A.     Loud bang, lots of pain.

14            Q.     Okay.

15            A.     Kinda sounds like that.

16            Q.     Let me ask you a little bit about your
17      drinking.  Have you ever drank and then blacked out and
18      found out things that you'd done before, or had done
19      after you started drinking, and you found out from 20      friends that all this stuff had happened and you never --

21            A.     Wow, I danced naked on the table, kind of 22      stuff?

23            Q.     Yeah.

24            A.     Never danced naked on the table, I know I
25      didn't.

1 Q. Okay. But has that ever happened to you
2 before?

3 A. Yeah.

4 Q. Okay. When was the last time you remember
5 that happening? Was it recent or was it years ago?

6 A. Three years ago.

7 Q. Years ago? Okay.

8 A. (Inaudible) if you consider the loud bang and
9 flash of pain.

10 Q. Okay. Okay. Do you remember --

11 A. This is really scary.

12 Q. I understand, hon, I do understand. And, you
13 know -- do you remember seeing the police officers
14 outside your truck?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Do you remember hearing the officers tell you
17 to stop and --

18 A. I remember getting back on the road in 19 Evanston, and a loud bang and flash of pain.

20 Q. Okay, okay. Do you remember running into the 21 police officers' cars?

22 A. What?

23 Q. You don't remember that?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Okay.
